TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 29.

A MAMMOTH MARINE TRICYCLE.—The Washington correspondent of the New York World says:

"While the affairs of the Arrow Steamship Company are being discussed in the papers, attention is naturally drawn to Mr. Robert M. Fryer, the designer of the Poonahoots, who is especially fertile in nautical inventions. Official drawings at the Patent Office, show a vessel invented by Robert M. Fryer and designated as a 'new and useful improvement' in buoyant propeller ships. Exactly what would be its attitude in a storm we cannot tell, but in calm water it glides along on gigantic wheels, high and dry. A vessel making a voyage with a dry keel is something never seen in navigation before. Each of the propellers—one under the bow, two under the stern—revolve independently of each other, and the ship is steered by regulating their respective speed. Mounted thus above the waves the noble three-decker floats, a craft that would strike with astonishment any mariner who ever trod a deck. The first glance at the picture gives one an impression of some sort of mixture, as if a long-legged freight-car had merged its personality in a paddle wheel steamboat. Even so; this ship will run on land as well as on water. The propellers are made with a flange to fit a rail, and it is intended to run the vessel across any land where a wide track with a middle rail can be built to accommodate it. What possibilities are unfolded by such an invention as this! When such amphibious motors are running we can go from Chicago to Liverpool without change of cars."

Brown's Little Joke.

"Why, Brown, how short your coat is," said Jones one day to his friend Brown, who wittily replied: "Yes; but it will be long enough before I get another." Some men spend so much for medicines that neither heal nor help them; that new clothes is with them like angels' visits—few and far between. Internal fevers, weakness of the lungs, shortness of breath and lingering coughs, soon yield to the magic influence of that royal remedy, Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS

MRS. WINDLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it cures the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle.
